SUBJECT: Implementation of District-Wide Chapter 11 Final Decree

Effective, September 1, 2013, the Court began using a new district-wide Chapter 11 Final Decree form. With the implementation of this new form, attorneys district-wide should no longer submit proposed final decrees.

Upon filing of a motion for final decree, the court will allow 14 days for objections before reviewing the case for possible entry of the final decree. Attorneys may wish to consider this objection period when determining when to file their motion for final decree.
